MASTER CLASS in leadership with Pat Masters

What you can expect from this Master Class

This course is the culmination of over 30 years of experience in the delivery of quality leadership facilitation. This program is designed to build upon your experience as a leader and encourage you to challenge your thoughts and practices and to support you in your journey of discovery and self-improvement. Come prepared to participate in group work and to allow for the thought-provoking experiential learning techniques, that will serve you in all aspects of your work and your personal life. You will have the opportunities to practice new learnings in a safe environment with some of the best learning coming from facilitation and peer feedback. Expect this course to go beyond any leadership course you have taken before. Delivered in a boot-camp style format, you will hit the road running, and as senior leaders, it is designed to engage you fully.

This Master Class in Leadership has come about from the highly successful Leadership and Management Skills Boot Camp training that Pat Masters has delivered to thousands of participants in government and business across Canada for over 10 years. This course simply had to be done. If you have attended one of Pat's leadership courses, this course is a must for you to continue to build upon some of the core principles learned. If you are new to our programs, you will not be disappointed in the takeaways for you, as today and tomorrow's leaders.

This course addresses the key challenges of leaders today:

- Being clear about expectations, both behavioral and performance, while being 100% honest and respectful
- Engaging your employees on the "why" of what they do is important; and reduce focus on the "what" they do
- Build relationships that are transparent, coaching-centered and impactful
- Grow your own and other's Emotional Intelligence

Who should attend

If you have taken any leadership courses before, this course is for you. From senior leaders to those starting out in a leadership position, including those who lead projects or initiatives, this course is designed to build on your experience and bring your leadership skills to the next level. For past participants of the Leadership and Management Skills Boot Camp, this course has been built with you in mind to expand your leadership approach and toolkit.
